

I donot support changes in the structure of the regulations concerning the telecommunications industry. I feel that competition is healthy for this industry and that the consumer benefits from this competition. Thank you